WORLD DAY FOR GRANDPARENTS and the ELDERLY

Elderly people symbolise the transmission of faith from age to age

Sunday 23 July, marks the 3rd World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly. The theme chosen for this year is "His mercy is from age to age," recalling a passage from Luke's Gospel.

Holy Mass that will be presided over by Pope Francis at 10 a.m. local time inside St. Peter's Basilica, and it will see the participation of over 6,000 people, including "many elderly people from all over Italy."

At the end of the celebration, five elderly people - one representative from each continent - "will symbolically hand over the World Youth Day Pilgrim's Cross to five young people leaving for Lisbon."

The gesture symbolises the "transmission of faith from age to age" but also "the commitment that the elderly and grandparents have accepted, at the invitation of the Holy Father, to pray for the departing youth and accompany them with their blessing."

All those who will attend the event at St. Peter's will receive a specific prayer to offer for the Day, along with a copy of the Pope's message to grandparents and the elderly.

May God bless our Grandparents and the Elderly.

You will grant repentance after sin

There is no god, other than you, who cares for everything, to whom you might have to prove that you never judged unjustly.

Your justice has its source in strength, your sovereignty over all makes you lenient to all. You show your strength when your sovereign power is questioned and you expose the insolence of those who know it; but, disposing of such strength, you are mild in judgement, you govern us with great lenience, for you have only to will, and your power is there.

By acting thus you have taught a lesson to your people how the virtuous man must be kindly to his fellow men, and you have given your sons the good hope that after sin you will grant repentance.

WORLD YOUTH DAY 2023

Domingos Fezas Vital, the Portuguese Ambassador to the Holy See, speaks about the "deep sense of responsibility," but also of the "immense joy" that is accompanying the entire country toward World Youth Day 2023. The ambassador's hope is for the upcoming World Youth Day "to be seen as a sign of hope in a better world, more just and more sustainable."

The event will take place in Lisbon, from 1 to 6 August, and will see the presence of over 400,000 young people from all over the world.

The motto chosen by Pope Francis for this year's World Youth Day is: "Mary arose and went with haste," recalling Luke's Gospel account of the Visitation.

Among the various moments characterising the Pope's participation in World Youth Day, there is a moment of prayer for peace that Pope Francis will have in Fatima.
