PRAY FOR LIFE NOVENA

We invite you to join Catholics across Scotland, England, Wales and Ireland in a Novena For Life from 23 May to the Feast of the Visitation, praying for the protection of human life.

Sign up to the Novena at prayforlife.ie for your daily intention, accompanied by a short reflection and suggested actions to help build a culture of life.

The Feast of the Visitation is a celebration of joy in new life, even in challenging circumstances, and we pray for a return to a society that values and protects all human life from the moment of conception to its natural end.

The Novena will lead up to our annual Day for Life on Sunday 16th June 2024 of the Bishops Conferences of England and Wales, Ireland and Scotland.

FIRST READING : Exodus 24 : 3 - 8

This is the blood of the Covenant that the Lord has made with you

RESPONSORIAL PSALM : Psalm 115

RESPONSE : The cup of salvation I will raise; I will call on the Lord's name

SECOND READING : Hebrews 9 : 11 - 15

The blood of Christ can purify our inner self

GOSPEL : Mark 14:12-16, 22-This is my body; this is my blood. On the first day of Unleavened Bread, when the Passover lamb was sacrificed, his disciples said to Jesus, 'Where do you want us to go and make the preparations for you to eat the passover?' So he sent two of his disciples, saying to them, 'Go into the city and you will meet a man carrying a pitcher of water. Follow him, and say to the owner of the house which he enters, "The Master says: Where is my dining room in which I can eat the passover with my disciples?" He will show you a large upper room furnished with couches, all prepared. Make the preparations for us there.' The disciples set out and went to the city and found everything as he had told them, and prepared the Passover. And as they were eating he took some bread, and when he had said the blessing he broke it and gave it to them. 'Take it,' he said 'this is my body.' Then he took a cup, and when he had returned thanks he gave it to them, and all drank from it, and he said to them, 'This is my blood, the blood of the covenant, which is to be poured out for many. I tell you solemnly, I shall not drink any more wine until the day I drink the new wine in the kingdom of God.' After psalms had been sung they left for the Mount of Olives.

SSVP

As you leave the church today, Shaun will be at the door collecting for SSVP. Have you ever wondered how is this money spent?

The Society of Saint Vincent de Paul (SSVP) are here to support individuals and families who are less fortunate than many. They provide food parcels to those in need on a regular basis. They purchased selection packs at Christmas and Easter eggs at Easter for distribution to our parish children. They assisted a few families of children who were making their First Holy Communion. They organised donations of toiletries to the homeless at Christmas and they provided an afternoon of food and entertainment to the pensioners of the parish and lots of other initiatives within our area.

If you require any support or assistance from the SSVP, please speak to Shaun as you leave the church.

INFORMATION REQUIRED

We are currently updating the parish records and require further information from the parents of SOPHIA who was Baptised on 25th February 2024. If you are one of the parents, please speak to either Fr. Montesi or Angela to enable the record to be fully updated. Thank you.

THE MEN OF ST. JOSEPH
